The Saint John's Bible and the Art of the Book

The Saint John's Bible (created between 1998 and 2005) was written and illustrated entirely by hand. Produced by scribes and illuminators from around the world, the beautiful Heritage Edition of The Saint John's Bible is an outstanding example of the marriage of book-making, calligraphy and fine art.

Masters of Miniature – The Kupjack Rooms and Kaye Collection

Some of the world's most remarkable miniatures will be on display this season as part of the museum's Masters of Miniature exhibition. Featured works in this wide-ranging collection of miniature rooms include the majestic Roman Triclinium, the Napoleonic Anteroom and the Louis XV Petit Salon.
